

Headlight replacement on Jeep Wrangler JK

When upgrading headlights on a Jeep Wrangler JK, you will need to trim off one keyway from the factory mounting plate. This needs to be done on for both driver and passenger sides. With this modification the JP-703S will then be able to align properly with the factory mounting plate.

